

STORY's Book Donation Drive 'Share A STORY' Spreads the Magic of Reading

Kolkata, 14th November, 2015: On the occasion of Children's Day, STORY had undertaken a unique initiative, 'Share A Story', which aimed at donation of books for the underprivileged children. The books collected were handed over to the children of Future Hope & Mukti Rehabilitation Centres, Child In Need Institute (CINI), NGOs of Loreto House and Jewish Girls Schools.

'Share A Story has encouraged kids and adults to donate books for the less privileged children. We adopted various measures and promoted the initiative across the social platforms encouraging people to donate books. The initiative has received overwhelming response, due to which we've decided to extend the initiative till 22nd November, 2015. The books are sorted into various categories before they are handed over to the Children. On behalf of STORY, we are also giving significant number of books for the children', said Mr Sidharth Pansari, Chief STORYteller STORY & Managing Director, Primarc Group.

This initiative has tried to inculcate reading habits and literature admiration among children. At STORY, the book contributors are given a certificate from STORY and each donator gets a coupon which entitles them to a 20% discount on Books and 5% discount on toys and stationery. They also get a chance to participate in lucky draw where the winners will receive STORY Gift Vouchers upto Rs 1500/- .
